Plan for Quad-City enterprise zone praised

By SUSAN SIGNAICO-WEICH
of the Press-Record

A public hearing concerning designation of an enterprise zone in the Quad-City area met with overwhelming support Thursday night.

Although no other attendees were present at the 7:30 p.m. meeting, representatives of Granite City, Madison, Venice and various economic groups attended and voiced strong approval.

THE ENTERPRISE

Zone would have excluded Venice, Aaron Ridenour, economic development coordinator of Madison County, said Thursday that the boundaries will be changed to include all of Venice if city officials are willing.

Ridenour said the initial zone designation may only be composed of 10 square miles, but the area may be expanded after the first year to 13 square miles.

He said he hoped that a minimum of one square mile of Venice be included in the initial plan and that, after the first year, the rest of the 2.5 square mile city be put into the zone.

Ridenour said inclusion of Venice would require "cutting out" a portion of the zone at the northern boundary, but that the cut-out portion also could be included after the first year.

Mayor Tyrone Echols and Ridenour, in a joint afternoon to which part of Venice can be included initially.

IF THE ZONE is implemented, Granite City, Madison and Venice will work together with St. Louis County. The joint venture will attempt to market prime industrial property within the zone, market vacant and under-utilized buildings here, and assist businesses in locating or expanding in the zone.

A major objective is to increase the number of available jobs by at least 450 annually. According to Ridenour, of these 150 jobs, a minimum of 80 positions would go to zone residents.

The zone would be run by an administrative organization that would include the mayors of Granite City, Madison and Venice, Madison County Board Chairman Nelson Hagnauer and other prominent economic developers.

INCENTIVES that would be offered to industries locating in the zone include: prescreening of the low-income eligible workforce; job training assistance; property tax abatement of up to 10 percent on the increase in assessed value for a maximum of four years; and abatement of city sales taxes on items purchased and used during construction within the zone.

In the public statement portion of the hearing, Granite City Mayor Paul Schuler said he wanted to commend the Madison County Board for authorizing this kind of program.

"The enterprise zone represents the continuation of a plan we've all been envisioning for some time," Schuler said. "It appears we're taking one giant step in obtaining economic development."

MADISON Mayor Mike Sasek said the proposed enterprise zone will benefit this area. "I think the fringe benefits the zone will be offering will encourage industry to come in," he told the gathering.

Similes endorsements were given by James Pennekamp, executive vice-president of the Tri-Cities Area Chamber of Commerce; Greg Nieman of the Leadership Council of Southwestern Illinois, and Richard Chapman, assistant to the vice-chairman of Illinois Power Co.

Local business leaders sending letters endorsing the zone included American Steel Foundries, National Steel, Consolidated Aluminum, Colonial Bank of Granite City, East Illinois Supply, Skinner's Market, Nesco, Granite City Trust and Savings Bank, Granite Bank, First National Bank in Madison, A.O. Smith Corp. and First Granite City National Bank.

The Tri-City Regional Port District also sent a letter of support.

In the Metro-East area the program could create an average of more than 380 construction and related jobs annually between 1986 and 1990. About $2.2 million in local tax revenue would be added to the local area's economy during that period.

Announce upgrading of Cahokia Mounds, other parks

A four-year, $30 million program to provide the Illinois state park system and other Department of Conservation facilities with their first large-scale upgrading in nearly two decades was announced here Thursday.

"Improving our park system has been a major goal since I became governor in 1977," Gov. James R.

Thompson said. "With these improvements made possible by the cooperation of the General Assembly, our state's finest will have some of the finest facilities in the nation to day." He spoke at the Cahokia Mounds State Park.

Called for in the plan are improvements, expansion and new construction at state parks, conservation areas, hatcheries, tree nurseries, refugee habitat sites, game preserves, public hunting areas and boating access installations, some of which have not undergone major updating since the 1960s. Private investors will be called on to assist several projects in the program.

To facilitate the earliest possible start on a large variety of projects, the governor will ask the legislature this fall to approve a new $40 million bond authorization to expand and upgrade state parks and conservation facilities, and other technical changes needed to finance the park system.

In addition, $21 million will be used by the Department of Transportation for road work in and near the Job offer enlivens campaign but may hamper Barton trial

State's Attorney Don Weber has withdrawn making a job offer to Robert L. Carter, who earlier was a "wired" witness in the investigation of Madison County assessment actions.

The issue has enveloped Nov. 6 election campaign by Republican Weber and Democrat Dick Allep. It also may complicate the trial of Supervisor of Assessments James W. Barton and three others accused of conspiring to lower assessments in return for contributions.

Meanwhile, Carter has withdrawn extensive comment, since he is awaiting trial. But he has indicated he plans to defend himself vigorously, including finishing his third four-year appointive term ending Dec. 31.

He has not reported whether he will oppose County Board Chairman Nelson Hagnauer's decision not to reappoint Barton to a fourth term.

The attorney general has received little or no support on the County Board in the wake of two series of indictments, in 1982 and 1984. None of the allegations have come to trial, and Barton says he is innocent.

WEBER said he discussed an assumed state's attorney position with Carter because "everything I know about him shows that he would be a good prosecutor."

The state's attorney said the conversation took place after Carter had testified to grand jurors and after Weber had notified Special Prosecutor Bruce D. Locher, director of the jury's investigation.

Weber denied that Carter testified in return for the job.

HELEN is angry because Carter said "a Barton associate" offered a job "if Allen defuses Weber." Allen says he resents the attempt to link Carter with Allen, since the actual job offer link was between Carter and Weber.

Allen thinks the offer was improper, even if it occurred after the testimony. Weber says there was no impropriety, and he has not conceded that there could be an adverse effect on the prosecution.

The challenger, Allen, says that Carter, if he was simultaneously a special public defender, an informant to the Illinois Division of Criminal Investigation and a prospective state's attorney, may have consented to "entrap" those whose indictments stem from his testimony.

WEBER SAYS ALLEN should not attack a witness whom Allen, if elected, would need to rely on to prosecute the Barton case.

A key consideration in an effort to link him with county assessment issues was wrong—and could backfire against Weber—was disclosed by the Press-Record on Thursday.

Showing copies of two letters from Carter, Allen said a Carter-Weber (Continued on Page 6)

Grant to improve library

Sec. of State and State Librarian Jim Edgar announced Friday that the Granite City Public Library will be receiving a $37,444 library construction grant.

"I am pleased to announce this grant which will help fund remodeling of the Granite City Public Library to make it more accessible to handicapped patrons," Edgar said.

"Installation of a new vertical power lift will give handicapped persons access to all floors of the library," Edgar concluded.

Edgar said the planned remodeling will increase the size of the present lobby and expand and relocate the library's circulation area.

"Granite City library officials deserve much credit for obtaining this federal funding which provides a 40 percent match for the 60 percent of the cost of the project which has been raised at the local level."

"As state librarian, it gives me great pleasure to announce the grant, which will help ensure the continuation of excellent library services to Granite City residents," Edgar concluded.

New pool seen as major asset

By GARY SCHNEIDER
Press-Record Editor

"I think you can tighten your belt so far it cuts off the circulation," George Sykes, president of the Granite City Park Board, commented. "But we are approaching the final phase of activities to promote the November bond issue for a new park swimming pool."

Displaying new drawings of the proposed $1.2 million Olympic-sized swimming pool, Sykes told members of the Granite City Optimist Club at the YMCA that Granite City has achieved such a poor image among our Missouri neighbors that it is time to quit circling the wagons and get out and do something positive. Do something nice for ourselves, and show the people in Missouri that the people in Granite City have not laid down and given up," he said.

GRANITE CITY'S image across the river is one of school closings and financial difficulties, plant closings, sewers collapsing, air pollution which is the highest in the state and other problems. "There has been so much adverse publicity about Granite City, we've got to stand tall for ourselves, and by ourselves, and do something nice for ourselves and I think we can do it," he commented.

When industries and individuals are thinking of moving into a community, they look at many things, including the schools and recreational opportunities, he said. A new park pool could help make this a more attractive community in which to live, he said.

GRANITE CITY TRUST

Q We were recently informed that a dormant bank account has been discovered which belongs to us. We were contacted by a firm whose representative told us over the phone that his company was engaged in investigating such things. He said that they would release the information to us for a fee. Is this legal?

A Yes, such services exist, and they are quite legal. The fee for tracking down such things as bank accounts, uncashed checks or other lost or dormant assets is usually fairly hefty — sometimes in the area of 25 to 30 percent of the asset found. Many such firms offer their services only if the owner is unaware of the asset, and sometimes only if the value of the asset is less than $150. You can avoid this by doing some investigating yourself. Begin by contacting the unclaimed property administrator in states where you or relatives have lived or conducted business. Millions of dollars in unclaimed assets remain unclaimed each year. So a little time spent in investigation may well pay dividends.

He noted that the $12 million bond issue for the pool will be on the same November ballot as the $3.6 million school bond issue and if it passes the school bond issue, we have to turn down the park board issue," he said, expressing a desire that voters weigh all of the issues on their individual merits and then make up their minds.

"I WOULD like to put down the idea that if we pass the park bond, we will turn down the school bond issue and if we pass the school bond issue, we have to turn down the park board issue," he said, expressing a desire that voters weigh all of the issues on their individual merits and then make up their minds.

During public hearings, opinion surveys and meetings on the pool, Sykes said, public opinion has been running three-to-one in favor of the park pool. Meetings are scheduled each week at a citizens' meeting to support the pool issue and to organize an active campaign from now until Nov. 6 to promote the park bonds.

Wednesday night, supporters will meet at the Granite City Park at 7 p.m. to discuss the bond issue and Thursday at 7 p.m., the board will meet with citizens in the Harold Brown Recreation Center to form a citizens' committee on the bond issue and begin a citizens' campaign.

PRIVATE donations only will be used to finance the campaign for the pool. At Thursday's meeting, Louis Pashoff, a long-time Optimist member and former Granite City businessman, presented Sykes with a personal check for $300 to help promote the park bonds.

Cahokia Mounds upgrading with a payroll of $3.4 million in annual pay could result in visitation and tourist spending increase, thus increasing tax base.

Projects include renovation and expansion of the Pore Marquette State Park's lodge at a cost of $8 million; construction of a resort complex at Lake Shelbyville, planned with private and public funding and construction of an interpretive center and museum at Cahokia Mounds.

Cahokia Mounds, long regarded by the scientific community as one of the nation's most significant archaeological and anthropological sites, is on the United Nations World Heritage List of properties having international cultural and historic significance. Once the heart of Indian civilization in the Midwest, it is the only Illinois site on the world list.

Work at Cahokia Mounds will be preceded by studies to prevent loss of archaeological significance of structures during the $6 million site improvement, renovation and construction of the museum.

At Pore Marquette, cabins, an indoor swimming pool, a sauna, whirlpool, game rooms, conference room, banquet facilities and a gift shop, will be added to the existing lodge. Other actions are planned for the new resort complex envisioned at Lake Shelbyville. A golf course and facilities for an equestrian program also are in the lake Shelbyville plan. The lake will provide the means, it is hoped, to complete the historic note the pool issue.

Sykes reviewed the "long and painful process" that led the park board to "the most responsible decision that we could make—we have to have a new pool." He noted that to rehabilitate the old pool would have cost 70 percent of the cost of a new pool.

Governor declares Illinois Fitness Day

Wednesday Oct. 3, has been proclaimed as Illinois Employee Fitness Day by Gov. James R. Thompson to call attention to the relationship between good health and employee productivity.

"Events such as this give an opportunity to Illinois workers to take personal responsibility for their own health and well-being," according to Jim Liston, executive director of the Illinois Governor's Council on Health and Physical Fitness. "A study among state employees who participated in last year's event found that 53 percent felt more productive the remainder of their work day."

Illinois businesses will be encouraged to plan fitness activities for Oct. 3, Liston said. Area employees will earn iron-on patches for participation in activities such as walking, jogging, bicycling and swimming. Most activities will be scheduled over employees' lunch hours that day.

ILEEA plans for statewide conference

A newly formed Illinois Law Enforcement Association (ILEEA) has begun plans for a statewide conference at the University of Illinois, Champaign-Urbana, to be held in August 1985.

The board meeting was held at the Police Training Institute at the U of I.

Mick Strange of Madison, public affairs chairman for the group, was asked to serve on the state association board.

In addition, two local explorers, both members of Post 104, were asked to serve on the youth advisory committee. They are Post 104 President John Hartman of Granite City and Post 104 Vice-President Dan Fleig of Venice.

Part of the conference planning will include a statewide survey of all police departments that have a post as part of their police community relations program. The survey will determine what areas the departments may be interested in starting a law enforcement post.

Exploring is a program of the Boy Scouts of America for youths 14 to 21. The posts are organized along career interests.

Warriors Begin Tuesday

GCH Tournament of Champions begins today

By ALAN L. GERSTENECKER
Sports Editor
of the Press-Record

GRANITE CITY — This its fourth year, Granite City High School's Tournament of Champions has all the requirements to be the best thus far.

Beginning in 1981 with four teams in a round-robin affair, the Tournament of Champions grew to eight teams in 1982, 12 in 1983 and 16 teams this year.

Getting under way today at 3 p.m., the 1984 edition officially "kicks" off as Hazelwood Central vs. Desmet Spartans, followed by McClellan North and Riverview at 5 p.m., Oakville and Vianney at 7 p.m. and St. Mary's and Rosary will round out the first day's pairings as they play at 9 p.m.

Beginning, and the other seven teams of the 16-team soccer extravaganza, will play Tuesday utilizing the same time schedule. Granite City's opponent in the first round is Hazelwood West, a game which begins at 7 p.m.

In addition to those teams already mentioned, Chaminade, Hazelwood East, Christian Brothers College, last year's Missouri state champion, Mehlville, Parkway North and St. Louis University will compete in the six-day long tournament.

Unlike last year's tournament which lasted just four days and utilized an auxiliary field for first-round games, all contests this year will be played at the GCH stadium.

The purpose of the tournament is better than those which preceded it is the added number of teams, but also because of the continued sponsorship of the tournament by Pepsico, said GCH coach Keith Baker, at Sunday night's kick-off dinner for coaches. Baker particularly thanked Walter Milton and John Kopchak of Pepsico.

"Pepsi's" sponsorship of the tournament helps make this the best high school tournament in the Midwest if not in the nation," Baker said before tournament coaches, their wives and guests and Granite City School District officials.

SECOND-ROUND action will continue on Wednesday, Oct. 3, at 3:55 p.m. before the consolation action begins on Thursday, Oct. 4, using the same time format.

Semi-final action in the championship round is scheduled for 7 and 9 p.m. on Friday, Oct. 5, after the consolation semi-finals at 3 and 5 p.m.

The only games scheduled Saturday are the championships. The consolation championship will begin at 3 p.m. followed by the championship bracket. The championship is slated for 7 p.m. after the third-place game which begins at 5 p.m.

IN LAST year's tournament, the McClellan North Stars bettered the Desmet Spartans 2-1, winning the tournament, while Riverview, Rainier, Rosary and Vianney Golden Griffins 1-0 to secure third place.

In 1982, host Granite City South won the tournament, the same year the Warriors won the state championship.

Vianney was the first winner of the Tournament of Champions in 1981.

The Golden Griffins bettered the three other teams in the round-robin affair.

Semi-final action in the championship round is scheduled for 7 and 9 p.m. on Friday, Oct. 5, after the consolation semi-finals at 3 and 5 p.m.

The only games scheduled Saturday are the championships. The consolation championship will begin at 3 p.m. followed by the championship bracket. The championship is slated for 7 p.m. after the third-place game which begins at 5 p.m.

Gridders outmuscle Collinsville; win 21-0

By JAMES BLASINGAME
of the Press-Record

COLLINSVILLE — The Granite City football Warriors and first-year coach Ron Yates picked up victory No. 1 Friday night by rolling over the Collinsville Knights 21-0.

Yates' 53-0 drubbing at the hands of East St. Louis and a sub-par week of practice in preparation for Collinsville, Yates wasn't quite sure how well his Warriors would perform Friday night.

"We really didn't have a good tumbled the ball, and Granite City's Mike Fenoglio recovered at the Warrior eight-yard line.

With 6:12 left in the first quarter, Granite City scored its assault.

Running behind center Eric Mueller, right guard Tim Moran and right tackle Chris Luffman, the Warriors began to grind out first down after first down. Strong running by Owens and Cole moved the ball out to the Granite City 44.

Cole found Graves open again on the left sideline for another first down into Kahok territory at the Collinsville 37.

JOHN Corkovich bashed his way to the Kahok 31, and then Fenoglio plowed down to the Collinsville 17. Carries by Owens and Fenoglio brought the ball down to the five-yard line as the first quarter expired.

Fenoglio rammed the ball into the end zone from the two-yard line. Ryan Weeks booted the extra point, and the Warriors led 7-0.

The teams exchanged possessions, and Granite City's punt gave Collinsville the ball on their own 37 with 7:21 left in the half.

Runs by Cole and Blyle fed the charge that set the third and 13 from the Granite City 30.

TACKLE Lonnie Cook and linebacker Fenoglio fed the charge that set the third and 13 from the Granite City 33.

The Kahoks surprised the Warriors by shifting into the shotgun formation, as Burns fired a pass to Kahok tight end Trey Cook for another first down at the Granite City 19.

Here the Warriors dug in.

Tackle Dale Schaefer stopped Burns for no gain. On second down Fenoglio hammered at Blyle for a 10-yard loss. Then on the next play linebacker Jim Stanley dropped Burns for a yard loss on a sweep around the left end.

ON FOURTH down and 15, the Kahoks elected to go for it. From the shotgun formation, Burns rifled a pass to his tight end Cook on the left sideline. Cook didn't catch the ball, but a pass interference call gave Collinsville a first down at the 10-yard line with 1:58 left in the half.

Moran, Cook, and Schaefer popped Burns back into the right carries, and the Kahoks were faced with a fourth and goal from the five. Once again Burns carried and fumbled. Vince Siecka recovered for Granite, and the Warriors let the remainder of the first half tick away.

At the half, Granite City led 7-0.

The Kahoks received the second half kickoff and reminded the Warriors that there are two halves to a ball game, as Burns spun and high stepped his way through the Granite City defense. Carried by Blyle and Rogers, Burns brought the ball to the Kahok's 16-yard line setting up a fourth and one.

Once again the defense held. This time it was Fenoglio who shot into the Kahok backfield for a six-yard gain for a touchdown. The Warriors regained possession at their own 24.

By now the Granite City offensive line was wearing down the Kahoks. The Warriors were blind to the Collinsville quarterback for a six-yard gain.

Venice serves Assumption a loss

By JOE THOMPSON
of the Press-Record

VENICE — Members of the Venice High Red Devils and Assumption Pioneer volleyball squads came to the "big" match Thursday afternoon — her — dressed the same, almost the same.

Players from both teams were donned in red shirts and white tops. The names of their respective teams were stiched across the front of their uniform blouses but, aside from that, they were dressed alike.

Dress similarities aside, however, "We did our thing and I guess they didn't do that well today," said Red Devil player Chanty Bradley.

THE RED Devils crushed the Pioneers, 15-6, 15-3, and upped their record to 5-3. The Pioneers dropped 3-8.

It was a "big" match for the Red Devils. The victory halted a three game losing streak.

Bradley, towering 5-11, led the turnaround with three thundering kills.

Also playing a large role was Cassandra White. Though slighter in build than Bradley, White also scored points on three spikes.

She did well serving, too, accounting for six serve points in the first game and the final three points in the second.

Also playing big parts were Tracy Epp, Rosetta Harmon and Tina White. Harmon dazzled on one effort, gift-wrapping a set up for one of Cassandra White's spikes.

PIONEER coach Mike Kelleher might like to know which three teams the Red Devils played before yesterday's encounter and how they're on his schedule.

"They're a good team and they've got some good players," he said about the Red Devils. "I guess the most outstanding team we've played is Waukegan. I wouldn't say White is very far behind."

Red Devil coach Clinton Harris, Jr. was delighted.

"We had a hard practice yesterday (Wednesday). They got up well and worked hard, today, I guess the hard work paid off," he said.

CASSANDRA White put the Red Devils on the winning tract with five consecutive serve points to start the match. The Pioneers never recovered.

A perfectionist, no doubt, White saw room for improvement. "We could've played a little better," she said. "We didn't set up well as we should have."

Harmon agreed. "Our spiking could've produced more, but," she said, "we had some good spikes."

That they did. The Red Devils also didn't seem to mind that their uniforms virtually matched up with the Pioneer jerseys. Don't blame the dress designer.

"We end up with red and white uniforms all the time," said Kelleher, though noting Assumption's colors are cream and crimson.

VENICE'S school colors, of course, are red and white.

It's just something the two teams will have to get used to — if they want to make a difference in future matches the way it did Thursday, it won't matter if the players are cloned. The three blind mice could tell the difference.

"I guess our team improved a lot today," said Bradley thoughtfully.

A lot.

"It was a nice game," said Petty.

Locker room evens

By AL BARNES
of the Press-Record

I'm all for those equal rights thinking so much in the news these past several years. Affirmative action, same sex bathrooms as men doing the same jobs and all that. It's no more than right.

Title 9 brought it all to a head and swept through the halls of learning like a tornado, causing much soul searching and work to the most all-male Athletic Departments and directors all the way from the universities and colleges right down through the high schools to the grade schools.

There were problems galore, no doubt of it, one of which was the pressure on most sports editors of newspapers to name a female to their sports departments.

If wasn't going to be easy, though, finding women reporters to assign to athletic "beats." The rush to discover such gals was on with a vengeance comparable to a gold rush. A lot of the sports editors attempted to solve their problem by attempting to solve their problem by solving two problems in one: the first, of course, was that the candidate be a qualified woman who knew sports and the other, which arose out of the affirmative action portion, was that each sports department should have a mixture of the races between the races.

The ideal solution, then, was to find a gal who was black and who knew how to "cover" sports.

So, last week, when I covered the women's soccer game at Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville in which the Red Devils' Missy Epp, a well-dressed student of Missouri Baptist College, 9-2, it suddenly hit me that I might have a problem in completing my assignment of "covering" the contest. That is, the women's locker room, in which the locker and shower room of both teams that reporters customarily must do.

Back there when women reporters first were assigned to cover games the big problem was in their being permitted to "visit" the shower rooms of the teams, and the red attendants and nearly choked before answering. Then, just as quickly, he smiled in relief, as he answered: "I'm sorry, Mister Barnes. It won't be possible for you to get into the locker room, but I can answer most of that somewhat relief."

"Why not?" I demanded, somewhat peevishly.

Smiling and obviously glad to be off the hook, he replied: "I'm sorry, but the shower and locker room isn't ready for the girls won't be taking showers today."

I laughed and hastened to explain that I was just joking.

Now 4-1-1, the season the women SIUE Cougars are off to the best season ever. They'll return to action again Sept. 23rd down at Rolla, Mo., against the Miners as school classes open at Edwardsville.

Good luck, Coach Kelley and your women kickers.

But, back to my problem of covering the SIUE women's locker room after the Cougars' victory over Missouri Baptist.

With tongue in cheek, right after the game was over, down on the sideline as Coach Kelley, in his first season coaching the women soccer kickers, I said: "Coach, I want to interview Epp (Granite City's) Devil. I think it won't be any problem in getting into the shower room, will there?"

I thought young Kelley was going to have a heart attack. He turned red, then turned a darker red, then nearly choked before answering. Then, just as quickly, he smiled in relief, as he answered: "I'm sorry, Mister Barnes. It won't be possible for you to get into the locker room, but I can answer most of that somewhat relief."

"Why not?" I demanded, somewhat peevishly.

actor Bob Stegemeier grinned. "I love shutouts," he said. "We got big plays when we needed them."

Collinsville coach Bob Hollingshead wasn't grinning. "Three times we fumbled into the 10-yard line and just lost our poise. We did it against Alton, against Roxana and here again. When's it going to stop?" he said.

"GRANITE City was hungry. They just gave us a good old fashioned butt-kicking," said Hollingshead. The Collinsville coach looked over at his friend, Ron Yates, who was answering questions from reporters on the far sideline.

"I know the Granite City kids have worked hard," he said. "If I wasn't the coach over here, I'd be glad Granite City won."

Friarsville players will be going for their second win of the season as they host the Edwardsville Tigers in Memorial Stadium. Kick-off time is 7:30 p.m.

Cougars sign two from Metro-East

EDWARDSVILLE — Two of the best baseball players in the Metro-East area, Dave Scheibal and Steve Bluemmer, have signed letters of intent to play baseball for the Cougars of Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville, according to Head Coach Gary Collins.

Scheibal, a 6'2" left-handed pitcher who has virtually re-written the Edwardsville High School record book, joins the Cougars after posting a 7-3 record and a 1.78 earned run average last year. A three-year member of the varsity squad, Scheibal holds the EHS career records for shutouts (135), start (28) and innings pitched (140). Last year, he posted 75 strikeouts in 74 2/3 innings and started 12 games.

As a senior, Scheibal was recognized by the Edwardsville Bank as one of several outstanding athletes at EHS. He was also awarded the team's "Fireman of the Year" award. Dave is the younger brother of former SIUE pitcher, Eric. Scheibal, who holds several Cougar records, including 22 career wins.

Bluemmer, a former first-team All-State third baseman from Collinsville, signed to join the Cougars after a two-year stint at Rend Lake Junior college.

While in junior college, Bluemmer posted a 3.43 batting average with 80 runs batted in and 82 runs scored. As a sophomore, he had the best with 100 runs batted in and was selected first-team All-Conference.

As a senior in high school,

Bluemmer posted a .435 batting average with 10 runs batted in and was not only selected All-State, but earned All-Conference, All-Metro and team most valuable player honors as well.

Scheibal, who will major in accounting and Bluemmer, who has majored in electrical engineering, are both expected to be in the lineup Oct. 4-7 when the Cougars host their annual fall invitational tournament.

Strong start for United Way campaign

A total of $134,582 in pledges thus far, or 23 percent of that group's goal of $540,000. This group is responsible for more than 71 percent of the 1984 campaign goal.

Total pledges this year are more than $24,000 ahead of the 1983 campaign at its first report luncheon. A total of $109,763 had been pledged last year, only 16.4 percent of the $870,000 goal. This year's goal represents a seven-percent increase over the amount actually collected last year.

Eric Robertson, 1984 general campaign chairman, said that he is "enthusiastic" about the initial group reports, but indicated that there is a lot of hard work still to be done to reach this year's goal.

The highest percentage of group pledges reported at the luncheon was by Sister Mary Thomas, chairperson of Group B, professions and organizations, at 30 percent, and Group C, government employees, schools and service clubs, chaired by Shirley Adams, reported pledges for $3,600 or 13 percent of that group's goal of $24,300.

Showing a strong start in this year's campaign was Group D, industry, construction and transportation, chaired by J.R. "Jake" Parmley. His group reported a total of $102,392 in pledges thus far, or 23 percent of that group's goal of $450,000. This group is responsible for more than 71 percent of the 1984 campaign goal.

Shirley Adams, vice chairperson of the year campaign, reported on special projects during the current campaign. These include the participation of hair stylists and barbers in the UW "blitz" and an ongoing project to assist various establishments throughout the Quad-City area. Results of the projects will be announced at subsequent report luncheons.

Providing entertainment for the first report luncheon at the community center on the Granite City campus was Matt Barnes, a member of Tri-City Tabernacle. He sang several inspirational songs which complemented the United Way cause.

Volunteer recognition awards were given to each group chairperson to an individual who performed "outstanding work" in assisting the group in solicitations during the first two weeks of the campaign.

Those honored were Mary Jesse, Group A; Dr. Felicia Koch, Group B; Madison Mayor Mike Sasyk, Group C, and Vince Lohman, Group D.

It was announced by Robertson that Henry D. Karandjeff was celebrating his birthday Friday and was honored with a gift and a "surprise" "Happy Birthday" by those attending the luncheon.

Karandjeff also received a gold award for increasing his personal pledge to the UW by at least 10 percent over last year's.

Handicapped parking law amended

Granite City aldermen approved an ordinance amendment last week, which will raise the fine for non-handicapped persons using handicapped parking spaces.

According to the amendment, persons violating the provision will be fined between $10 and $100. If the offense does not appear within 10 days of the alleged offense, a warrant of arrest will be issued.

The new law will go into effect on Jan. 1, 1985. According to City Attorney John Papa, this will bring the city ordinance up to standards with a new state law regarding the offense, which also goes into effect Jan. 1, 1985.

TRUCK TARPOLIN TAKEN

Ralph Sted of Alicia, Ark., told Madison police last week, that someone took two silver tarpaulins from his truck while he was at dinner. The truck was parked at 1301 Market St. at the time of the incident. The tarpaulins are valued at $500.

Bringing you the Best.

Saks to run for recorder of deeds on the GOP ticket

Robert E. Saks of Godfrey has been nominated to fill a vacancy on the Republican ticket Nov. 6 for county recorder of deeds.

Saks attended Northern Illinois University and received a degree from the University of Nebraska, majoring in economics.

He received an Army commission in 1949 and served in the Korean War as an infantry commander. He was twice wounded and was held as a prisoner of war by Chinese Communists for 34 months.

During his 30 years of Army service he successfully held positions in personnel, procurement and logistics management.

His service included tours of duty in Southeast Asia, Europe and the Far East. He served with the Joint Chiefs of Staff in Washington as a division chief.

He is the holder of two Legion of Merit medals, the Bronze Star, two Purple Hearts, three meritorious service awards and other awards.

Colonel Saks upon retirement spent several years in business in the Alton-Godfrey area and in active church work, including a deacon, Evangelical United Church of Christ, board member, Alton-Godfrey Rotary, board member, American Cancer Society, Red Cross and SIUE Industrial Advisory Council and the Alton Industry Relations Association of St. Louis, American Management Association, Riverbend United Way and Veterans of Foreign Wars.

Saks pledges to bring to the office of Madison County Recorder his "proven leadership and dedication to service in the community."

ROBERT E. SAKS

"I will be far more available than the present incumbent, who is rarely seen in the office. I will be committed to providing excellent service," he concluded.

"We are extremely pleased to have Robert Saks as the Republican candidate for recorder," according to Dr. Edward Ragdale, Madison County Republican chairman.

"He joins State's Attorney Don W. Weber, CPA Michael McNamee for auditor, and Dr. Edward Brauer for coroner, on the Madison County Republican ticket.

"In each instance, the Republican candidate has superior qualifications," the party chairman contend.

Legislation assists senior citizens with medical costs

Governor James R. Thompson has approved legislation which some changes, that will assist eligible senior citizens and disabled persons in paying for medication for carious muscular problems.

For many of our older and disabled citizens, struggling to make ends meet, the cost of appropriate medical care—and the medication needed to keep them alive and well—are out real concern. The mounting costs of food and rent, as well as medical care, Thompson said. "This legislation will help remove one more worry for individuals who must take medicine for threatening cardiovascular disease."

House Bill 2377 expands the Senior Citizens and Disabled Persons Property Tax Relief Act, commonly known as the Circuit Breaker, establishing a program to be administered by the Department of Revenue for pharmaceutical assistance to heart patients.

Under the law, eligible senior citizens and disabled persons will give up their flat pharmaceutical grant of $300 in exchange for a new, newly-passed HB 2377, which lowered Circuit Breaker eligibility from Jan. 1 in the year following the 65th birthday to the actual month in which a person turns 65.

The program established in HB 2560 will pick up the portion of their heat medication not covered by insurance.

In applying an amatory veto to the bill, Thompson said that, while he endorses the concept, portions of the bill conflict with other laws and present technical problems.

Included in the changes made were:

—Deletion of language referring to program ineligibility if a person is covered by private or group insurance. This section conflicts with other provisions in the bill which allow assignment of benefits from third parties.

—Changes to make the fraud penalties of HB 2560 consistent with the State Benefits Fraud Act, lowering the maximum dispensing fee for pharmacists from $4 to $3.30 to make it consistent with fees paid by the Department of Public Aid under its medical assistance programs.

—Changes in the prorating provisions to make them consistent with newly-passed HB 2377, which lowered Circuit Breaker eligibility from Jan. 1 in the year following the 65th birthday to the actual month in which a person turns 65.

Tickets are available at the University Center's Union Station. Regional treatment plans are delayed

Granite City Mayor Paul Schuler told city council members last week that engineering plans for the regional sewage treatment plant are being delayed until word is received from the engineering and the city of Madison.

Rainy weather necessitated the move to the Hilton. "This hotel is one of the areas of growth in the area," Nieman said, explaining the choice of the site.

The contribution will be used by the promotional committee for its new national advertising and public relations campaign to attract business relocation to the bi-state region.

Although the promotional committee's name implies efforts involving Missouri, Basilio said the group is working for a larger area, including Illinois.

The marketing campaign is targeted to entice businesses from three areas: the northeast, near Boston; the northwest, California or "Silicon Valley"; and the Detroit metropolitan area.

Boston and California are being targeted because of their technological industries.

The Detroit area is included because of its proximity to assembly plants in the St. Louis area.

Leadership Council Southwestern Illinois was formed in May 1983 to promote economic development in Madison and St. Clair counties.

Among its members are the county board chairmen from the two counties, and representatives of education, business and labor.

Parks receive first new taxes

By DONNA KIMBRO
of the Press-Record

The Granite City Park District last week received its first real estate tax payment of 1984, in the amount of $4,450, John Mink, treasurer, told the board at a regular session.

"I cannot say when we will receive the next payment," Mink commented. President George Sykes presided and, noting the small amount received, secured approval for issuance of two $5,000 tax anticipation warrants—to meet current bills until more money is received.

A NEW APPROACH to obtaining unimpeded for the softball season was proposed. It was described as reducing the manhours required in hiring and maintaining by preparing their checks and deductions.

If the board agrees to the plan, Ray Hoffman will organize an unimpeded association and hire all umpires at a cost of $9.50 per game. The board will be asked to periodically check to the association to cover the wages throughout the season.

A final decision will be made after Hoffman submits details in writing.

Board members said they would want teams to prepare rosters and have each player sign a waiver of liability on the part of the district.

THE PROPOSED swimming pool, which will be on the local ballot Nov. 6, was also discussed by park commissioners.

A representative of Hastings & Chalmers, architects and planners, displayed four large posters showing the design and site of the new pool, a floor plan for locker rooms and concessions, the outside of the buildings and the suggested plan for using the area of the existing pool.

At a long-range plan, the speaker suggested using the present bathhouse as an amphitheater and the pool area as a terraced seating area.

BOARD MEMBERS approved a request from a football league to use Worthen for a 12-week season.

They also approved a list of winter staff employees to be hired, submitted by Dale Nolan, director of parks and recreation. Dissenting from the approval were Members Nancy Sanders and Barry Loman.

City playground insurance raised

Granite City aldermen approved a resolution last week that will increase insurance coverage for a city-rented playground located along the east side of the river.

The acres of land are leased to the city by American Steel Foundries, a division of Amsted Industries Inc.

Under the resolution, the city will raise the liability insurance to $200,000 from $100,000 with an aggregate limit of $250,000. The city also must raise the workers' compensation liability and automobile liability insurance to an amount that is considered satisfactory to the company.

GOP leader says registration drive slanted to help Democrats

By JIM WOODCOCK

The chairman of the Republican County Committee in Madison County says the committee may seek legal action to halt alleged improper voter registration tactics by Project Vote, a group that has been making voter registrations in several counties throughout the county.

Republican Chairman Edward Ragsdale at a press conference last week said Project Vote—which labels itself a non-partisan civic organization—is seeking "all the votes" in an effort to register Democratic voters.

Some of the violations Dr. Ragsdale alleges:

—Deputy registrars belonging to Project Vote are handing out anti-Republican literature when registering voters.

Project Vote volunteers have not asked for identification from new registrants and in some cases, have been told it is not necessary, Ragsdale said this will certainly result in vote fraud.

Office Space has been provided to Project Vote by an organization which should be non-partisan (the Alton YWCA), and by Democratic state's attorney candidate Dick Allen.

Ragsdale said he also has information that Project Vote coordinator Mark Von Nida lives in north St. Louis County and is a registered voter there.

Deputy registrars in Project Vote and other groups in the county have until Tuesday to register new voters. Ragsdale said this means a possibility may be too late, but it remains a possibility.

"We should look into (legal action)," Ragsdale said.

"I don't know if it's all illegal. But it's a violation of the election laws. It proves to me we're not non-partisan."

Ragsdale said the tactics by Project Vote "are nothing short of stealing an election. A lot of money is going into their thing to defeat (State's Attorney) Don Weber and President Reagan."

He said Republicans harshly criticize the Republicans by the Alton YWCA to provide free office space to Project Vote.

"I can't see a connection between the YWCA and the Democrats," Ragsdale said. "It is a community resource and should be non-partisan."

Von Nida, former campaign coordinator for Sen. Gary Hart in the Illinois Senate, was born in Granite City and has been a registered voter here ever since 1976.

"We are only a non-partisan group trying to overcome registration barriers and make it as easy as possible for everyone to vote," Von Nida said.

"As of June '84 there were 53,000 unregistered voters in the county. Nationally, we have the lowest number of voters proportionately to any democratic county next to Bosnia."

"We're out to change that and we've registered 6,000 new voters in the county so far. As far as what Ragsdale has to say about us, I don't know what to think."

Von Nida said Ragsdale's appeal to the YWCA funding "was an irresponsible remark, almost blackmail." He added that Project Vote does not have office space in Allen's office, but the secretary does take messages for the group.

State minimum wage raised

The Illinois Department of Labor has announced a statutory increase in the state minimum wage, effective today, Oct. 1.

The wage rate of $3 per hour is a result of legislation which increases until the rate is the same as the federal minimum wage ($3.35). The final phase of the increase will be effective July 1.

Although the law covers all Illinois employers with four or more employees, the increase only affects employers who are not subject to federal law. There are about 500 workers in the state who are exclusively covered by the state law.

The Illinois law sets a separate minimum wage rate for workers under 18 years of age. That new rate as of Oct. 1 is $2.55. The youth minimum wage beginning in July 1985 will be $2.85.

Employers can also request a license to pay less than the statutory minimum wage to individuals with physical or mental handicaps. Handicapped workers are only issued when an individual's handicap impairs his productivity and the handicapped worker agrees to the lower rate.

Applications for learners and handicapped workers are available at the Illinois Department of Labor, Labor Law Enforcement Division, S. Michigan Ave., Chicago, Ill. 60605.

$100 CASH IS MISSING

A total of $100 was missing from a cash register at The Designers, a beauty salon located at 1920 Edison Ave., where an interior door was found open last night. Bryan Barfield, owner reported.

The fiscal actions were by amendment, since the board had taken action last winter—earlier than normal—to borrow to the lower rate.

Based on the new levy, Finance Director Norman S. Owca estimated that the 1985 real estate tax levy for 1985 collection to be $9,533,831. The 1983 levy for 1984 was $8,732,708.

Levy and budget adoptions were enacted after a series of brief public hearings that drew no response from the audience.

The fiscal actions were by amendment, since the board had taken action last winter—earlier than normal—to borrow to the lower rate.

The new levy is based on an estimate of the next assessed valuation, which will not be determined until May or June 1975.

Owca said, "There could be a decrease in the proposed levies if the valuation is lower than estimated, except in tort, immunity and Grassroots government.

Attorney general's office to open in 3 weeks in GC

Illinois Attorney General Neil F. Hartigan plans to move his office in Granite City in about three weeks to the county area, it was announced yesterday by Mac Warfield, Madison County Democratic chairman.

Remodeling of the former Prudential Co. office at 1314 Niederschlag Ave. is to begin immediately. Don Adams has been picked to contract the remodeling and cleanup work.

The building is being leased from the Karandjeff family. Details of the

Granite City School District Nine

announced its 1984 real estate tax levy for 1985 collection to be $9,533,831.

The 1983 levy for 1984 was $8,732,708.

Levy and budget adoptions were enacted after a series of brief public hearings that drew no response from the audience.

The fiscal actions were by amendment, since the board had taken action last winter—earlier than normal—to borrow to the lower rate.

The new levy is based on an estimate of the next assessed valuation, which will not be determined until May or June 1975.

Owca said, "There could be a decrease in the proposed levies if the valuation is lower than estimated, except in tort, immunity and municipal retirement."

"There could be a reduction in the projected tort and retirement rates if the assessment is higher than estimated."

"There is no proposed 1984 total tax rate increase over the actual 1983 total rate, except for the proposals on the Niederschlag property."

"The increase in the levy is due to an expected increase in the value of local property from $249,577,251 to a value of $279,526,321."

The board transferred the following costs from the educational to the building and maintenance budget:

—Teachers' pay, the pay of the buildings director, all custodial and maintenance supplies, water, sewerage, natural gas, purchased and rented services for custodial and maintenance, property taxes, police costs and vehicle insurance except pupil transportation vans and driver education autos, new and replacement equipment applicable to building operation and food service, and any site acquisitions and buildings or equipment other than for vocational educational.

The reference to gas for heating is newly shown in the cost transfer list.

In previous years, the list included electricity.

BATTERY IS ALLEGED IN INCIDENT AT HOME

Carlton J. Turner, 37, of 1939 Cleveland Blvd., was charged with battery for an incident that occurred on Sept. 29.

Turner and his wife, Flo, were arguing in the kitchen, and Mrs. Turner alleged she had been beaten and choked. Small lacerations and bruising were visible to her right eye, reports said.

Turner allegedly became abusive toward officers and necessary force was used to effect the arrest and to place him in a cell at police headquarters, it was noted. Turner was released at 8:15 a.m. Saturday upon posting a $52 cash bond.

SIU professors critique coverage of campaigns

Millions of TV sets and millions of tons of newsprint. Thousands of reporters. Billions of words, certainly.

And all about just two people, the candidates for president of the United States.

IN SOME WAYS, it seems less important who the people are than how they are seeing votes, according to two Southern Illinois University-Carbondale professors who are experts in political communication and voting behavior.

In an article in the fall issue of the quarterly magazine for SIU alumni, Keith R. Sanders and John S. Jackson III critique the media's approach to political campaigns and offer suggestions on how voters can make better-informed decisions.

The influence of television on presidential campaigning is much more than merely "dramatic." Television in many ways has changed the whole nominating and campaign process.

"RESEARCH suggests that more and more people are making electoral choices based on what they are acquiring from the media, particularly by what they see on television, by affiliation and other traditional considerations," said Sanders, professor of speech communication and an authority on political communication.

Television "is in the homes of more than 85 percent of the potential American electorate," Sanders said. "It has a very long reach."

According to research, a third of the electorate makes its choice after the nominating convention, and that doesn't make sense on during the last three or four weeks before the election.

Those late-deciders will "probably be those who are most influenced by the media," said Jackson, professor of political science and a well-known researcher on voting behavior.

LATE-DECIDERS are "probably political independents, or those who are not informed, who are less interested, or who choose their candidates the way they choose which team they'll root for in the Super Bowl," Jackson said. "They're probably those who are attentive only at the last minute."

Those who do want to make informed choice often have trouble sift through the verbiage and misplaced emphasis that frequently attend political reportage.

"Our students," Sanders said, "some reporters seem more interested in who is going to win than in who ought to win."

MANY REPORTERS also hold misconceptions and what they electorate wants—and need—to read, Sanders said. Sanders added: The thrill of the horse race is interesting, but voters also need other information.

"One of the large challenges facing people is the mass media," Sanders said. "It's hard to learn to do a set-up of presenting candidates as people—people with values, personal habits, personalities, strengths and weaknesses of character and, yes, positions on the issues."

Among Sanders' suggestions to voters are:

—GATHER information about the election, candidates and issues from more than one medium (get it from newspapers, as well as television, for example).

—Acquire your information from more than one news source within a medium (watch two TV networks or read two opposing newspapers).

—The difficult part will be convincing people that something that hasn't happened in their lifetime, isn't likely to happen in their lifetime, is worth doing anything about," said Richard H. Moy, dean of the SIU School of Medicine.

SIU makes plans for possible earthquake

There is only about one chance in a million, Moy says, of drafting a plan to provide "rapid-deployment" emergency teams that can be ready at short notice to fly to the scene of an earthquake and help the injured.

Southern Illinois is within the zone that could sustain major damage if the New Madrid fault erupts.

Geophysicists who study the New Madrid fault believe an earthquake of that size is unlikely to recur in the next 400 to 600 years. But, says Moy, "there's enough energy in the fault to went off to produce a Richter 7.0 quake. Springfield might be the closest major medical center still intact, able to reach out to be of help ingfield, Moy says, is drafting a plan to what is now Montana, and from the Great Lakes to New Orleans. It rang bells in Boston, caused the Mississippi River to run backward and created Reelfoot Lake in Tennessee.

Geophysicists who study the New Madrid fault believe an earthquake of that size is unlikely to recur in the next 400 to 600 years. But, says Moy, "there's enough energy in the fault to went off to produce a Richter 7.0 quake. Springfield might be the closest major medical center still intact, able to reach out to be of help in Southern Illinois."

Part of SIU's preparedness work will be information, telling people what to do if they quiver, much of the advice will be the same that Southern Illinoisans have been hearing for years about tornadoes:

—GO TO AN interior, supported spot in a building, such as a doorway;

—Find a place away from windows to avoid injury from flying glass;

—Take shelter under a heavy piece of furniture to avoid injury from falling objects.

BUT UNLIKE what you have been told about a tornado, don't head for the basement, where you could be buried by building collapse.

And don't run outside, where you could be hit by pieces of a collapsing structure. That's what happened to two victims of a recent Idaho quake.

May believes preparation for New Madrid's worst ought to be a coordinated effort by the seven Midwestern states that are affected. And that's the time to start that effort is now, even though 100-year odds are long (99.1).

"We'd have lot of resources and specialists, but without organization, we couldn't get there to do anything when it happened."

SOUTHERN Illinois has experienced a number of tremors in recent years of no greater intensity than 5 on the Richter scale.

People think of earthquakes below Richter 5 as "cute," Moy says. But Richter 6, they begin to do some damage. Quakes measuring 6 are likely, 7 are possible and 8 are "unlikely in our lifetime, but possible."

An earthquake preparedness committee, headed by SIU's vice president for campus services, Clarence G. Dougherty, already has met with Carbondale city officials and staff members of Memorial Hospital of Carbondale as part of a move to campus and community preparedness.

SIUE IS looking at a hook-up with other medical schools in the New Madrid fault area to provide mutual assistance in the event of a major quake.

THE LAW AND YOU

BY RICK REED
Attorney At Law

Most people think of bankruptcy only as a means of eliminating large amounts of indebtedness. However, bankruptcy is a means of discharging a variety of situations. As will be seen in the three examples to follow, bankruptcy can save the driver's license of an uninsured motorist, stop the repossession of an individual's car, and save a person's home when a mortgage foreclosure is imminent.

The Illinois Safety Responsibility Law provides that an uninsured motorist causes personal injury to another driver or property damage to his vehicle in excess of $250.00, the Secretary of State may suspend the driving privileges of the uninsured driver. Normally, the driver with insurance can have his license reinstated by making arrangements to pay him off for property damage or personal injury. One problem, however, is that the damages arising from an accident may total many thousands of dollars.

The uninsured driver in this situation can discharge the indebtedness for personal injury and property damage resulting from the accident and can thereby avoid the suspension of his driver's license by filing a Chapter 7 bankruptcy.

Bankruptcy can also be used to avoid the repossession of an individual's car. In some instances, when a person falls two months or more behind with his car payments, the lender threatens to repossess the vehicle. In these cases, this is the personal only means of repossession. The person is unable to pay off the car payments in a lump sum. A Chapter 13 wage earner plan in this situation will stop the efforts of creditors to repossess and allows the debtor to pay off the delinquent car payments over a 36 month period.

Finally, a Chapter 13 bankruptcy can also stop a mortgage foreclosure. Often a person falls behind in his house payments because of illness or job layoff. Later when he goes back to work, he is unable to pay off in a lump sum the many months of delinquent house payments. Once again, a Chapter 13 wage earner plan can discharge the indebtedness for personal injury and property damage resulting from the accident and can thereby avoid the suspension of his home and saving it.

Energy grants awarded

The Energy Assistance Foundation has announced that grants to help residents of two Illinois communities reduce energy consumption have been awarded. The grants total $10,500.

The Decatur Central Christian Church was awarded $3,000 to fund a weatherization program with volunteers from within the congregation supplying the labor.

The Lions Club will be the recipient of $7,500 to weatherize approximately 10 homes in and around the Carlinville community. All labor will be volunteered by the Lions Club, thus maximizing the funds.

"We are happy to have these two fine organizations join our growing list of civic-minded agencies to assist those who are in need," said Harold E. Powell, executive director of the foundation. "Indeed, 'Help a Neighbor, Keep a Neighbor Warm' has been implemented."

This brings to date a total of 22 grants totaling approximately $250,000 that have been awarded by the foundation since its inception in December 1982. The Quad-City area was among the first areas served by the program.

Anyone wishing to contribute to the efforts of the foundation may contact them at their Decatur based office, or by writing Post Office Box A1749, Decatur, Ill., 62325.
